CHICAGO CUSTOM-HOUSE.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 24.—The Congressional Committee today received the report on the condition of the banking apparatus in the custom-house from Messrs. Burnett and Albert Cahoon, the experts appointed by the Collector of Customs at Chicago at the instance of Assistant-Secretary Fairchild to examine the apparatus. The committee wishes to discover the character of the report. It is understood, however, that it recommends the substitution of Wheeler & Randolph's apparatus for that now in use. The committee will probably meet in Chicago next week to examine the work, and not improbably to-morrow will visit the office and the apparatus put in by Herbert, Gribbin & Co. and not in operation. Inasmuch as the requirements of the contract as to certain qualities and capacity of materials to be used. The report of Lynch, the other expert sent to examine the work, has not yet been received here, but the Chairman, upon the report of the examiners will be submitted to the Secretary of the Treasury next week.
